Mike Armstrong

A former police officer from Louisville,. Kentucky and a favorite on the "Bob & Tom" radio show, Mike Armstrong has definite insight into police work and the humor that goes with it!

Raised by loving parents in the conservative mid-west, Mike Armstrong enjoyed a fairly normal childhood...so, what went wrong? He's an ex-cop, the kind of cop that most people hope for when they get pulled over. "I'd stop cars and warn the speeding drivers about the speed traps up ahead".

> "I think that when I quit the police department three other cops lost their jobs. They simply didn't need that many internal affairs officers anymore!"

> "I've been married so long, I don't even look both ways when I cross the street."

Mike and his wife have five children - clones of their father. They'll say and do just about anything to get attention.

CREDITS:
Film: A League of Their Own
Television: Oprah, CBS Morning News, Good Morning America, The Today Show, Comedy Central, TNN, NBC, FOX
Radio: The Bob & Tom Show, The King Show, National Public
Concerts: Tracy Lawrence, The Smothers Brothers, John Berry, Alan Jackson

TO CHECK MIKE'S AVAILABILITY FOR YOUR NEXT EVENT, PLEASE CONTACT:

Spotlight
Speakers & Entertainment
317-815-9160